

Madie 09-062

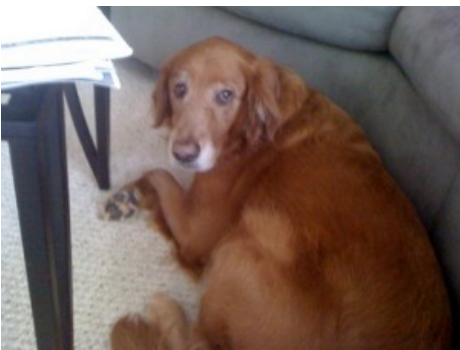

Hi,

I just wanted to let everyone that I have decided....with Madie's blessing that I'm her new forever home. She is doing fantastic and we are getting her signed up for therapy dog training. I would like to see her work with kids and reading. She is good at sitting and listening.....she might be able to help out with words as well.

Madie and Shredder are best of friends.....I think she thinks she is his big sister and sometimes his MOM....she does correct him when he is acting looney...she just ignores him. I'm so glad that we met and she is my new best friend.

I had open heart surgery last spring and I wanted to get a dog because my cocker spaniel died when I was sick....having the surgery was one thing...but, having my best friend pass away really hurt. Shredder was a little puppy when I got him.....but, Madie is special....she reminds me of Emma....my cocker. We are having a ball as a family and we really do get a lot of attention...they are very nice and well behaved.

I'm sending new pictures of Madie and Shredder enjoy!!!
